

THE HISTORY OF THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN

“Women who change the world”

It is with pleasure that ICW-CIF announces the availability of the new history of ICW-CIF, entitled “Women who change the world”.

This book presents ICW-CIF’s inside story, in particular since the end of the Second World War. This work of research was undertaken, from ICW-CIF archives, by four young historians: Catherine Jacques, Els Flour, Sylvie Lefevbre and Leen Beyens, under the supervision of Eliane Gubin (ULB) and Leen Van Molle (KUL).

This volume of 240 pages will be sold at the price of 22.45 Euros, to which must be added the cost of mailing (varying according to the country of destination) and bank charges (for a transfer or a check received).

In the first instance and in view of the information below, we wish to use a process of reservation for this book, in order to know the number of books you wish to receive and keep them aside for you.

You will find below a form of reservation. Thank you in advance for sending it back without delay. You will then receive an order form and, as soon as we receive your confirmation together with your payment, we will send you your order.

Reservation Form

Name (or) :

Name of National Council :

Address :

.....

.....

Number of copies required :

Please send back this form of reservation, dully filled in, to:

International Council of Women – Conseil International des Femmes

13, Rue Caumartin

75009 Paris

France

Fax: 00 33 1 42 66 26 23

e-mail: icw-cif@wanadoo.fr